Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

25X1A9a

DATE: 27 February 1951

TO : [REDACTED]

FROM : Director of Training

SUBJECT: Training of CIA Career Personnel by the Departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

1. The attached draft of a memorandum from DCI to Secretary of Defense has been worked up to implement the Director's wish expressed to me for the kind of disciplines and training it proposes for prospective CIA career employees.

2. The draft is based upon informal exploration of the problem by Captain [REDACTED] USN, of my staff. He has discussed the problem with and incorporated the suggestions of these officers:

AIR FORCE

MAJOR GENERAL C. P. CABELL (Director of Intelligence)
COL. G. V. MINNIS (Asst. Executive for Admin., Directorate of Intelligence, DCS/Operations)
COL. J. C. MARCHANT (Chief of Joint and Interdepartmental Section, Policy Division, Directorate of Intelligence)
COL. C. D. WHEELER (Deputy Director of Training, Air Force)
LT. COL. M. H. STRICKLER (Office of Special Assistant for Reserve Forces)

ARMY

* COL. C. E. N. HOWARD, G-2 (Chief of Training, Security and Training Division)
LT. COL. H. R. BOOSE, G-2 (Security and Training Division)
LT. COL. F. S. GABEL, G-2 (Chief, Reserve Components Branch)

* Col. Howard has been formally designated by Asst. Chief of Staff, G-2, as contact man for this problem. This resulted from DCI's remarks at the IAC meeting of 8 February re the desirability of service-conducted basic discipline and training for CIA career personnel.

NAVY (Including Marine Corps)

CAPT. JOHN OCKER, USN (Plans and Policies, ONI)
CAPT. R. GADROW, USN (Asst. Director of Recruiting Div. (NROTC), Bureau of Naval Personnel)
COL. T. J. COLLEY, USMC (G-1, Div. of Plans and Policy, USMC)

The basic idea of using Marine facilities in the manner we propose has informal concurrence at top Marine level.
